

What Are Accessible Educational Materials (AEM)?

Join us virtually on March 12, 2024

Part of the “Accessibility for ALL Students” professional learning series.

Guest Presenter: Rachel Schultz, AEM Specialist

Rachel Schultz, M.A., is the Accessible Educational Materials Specialist in the AT & AEM Center. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Special Education and a Master of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction, with state licensure in both TESOL and Special Education. Rachel has been working with people with disabilities for 16 years in a variety of educational and residential settings.

What Are Accessible Educational Materials (AEM)?

Date: Wednesday, March 12, 2024

Time: 10:00-11:00 am

Format: Virtual (Zoom)

Registration:

<https://forms.gle/SWcby1RvAYgtkTECA>

You must register through the Google registration form in order to receive the Zoom link. Registration is also available on Professional Learning Webpage on SST 7's website.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Olivia Siegfried, State Support Team Region 7, at osiegfried@ncoesc.net.